REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
Wm. McKinley,
OF OHIO.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
Theodore Roosevelt,
OF NEW YORK.
FOR GOVERNOR,
John W. Taylor,
OF KENTUCKY.
FOR CONGRESS,
W. M. Jolly,
Buckeye County.

"UNTIL the money question is fully and finally settled, the people will not consent to the consideration of any other important question."—Bryan's letter of acceptance in 1896. Farmer friends, another campaign is on and Mr. Bryan is now harping on imperialism. What do you think about it? Is the money question settled? We think so, and Mr. Bryan certainly does for he never said aught about free silver this time in his letter of acceptance, but he would not accept the nomination until the silver plank was inserted in the platform.

The Herald says in reference to the rally and flag raising at Beaver Dam last Saturday that "the pole was raised amid the cheers of the assembled crowd, composed largely of ladies." The course of the Democratic party has been so repugnant to good morals, that its own members, intelligent of course, refuse even to respect such an occasion as a flag raising and the ladies went purely through curiosity, and to see the pole erected heavenward. Gentlemen, if you want the good, sober, thinking people to respect you, quit stealing and have enough manhood about you to repudiate those who are guilty of grand larceny.

KENTUCKY is overwhelmingly Democratic and Ohio county Democratic by a small majority, provided every Democrat will vote. The Hartford Herald, figures themselves will prove the assumed scribe a careless precavicator and loose handler of facts. In '96 the Democrats cast 9679 and the Republicans 2533, a total of 5332. This was the largest vote ever cast in the county up to this time. Last year the Republicans cast 2824 votes; the Democrats 2339; the Populist 74; Brown Democrats 104; Prohibitionists 35; total 5376. This is the largest vote ever cast in the county. In '96 the Democratic majority was 26, while in '99 the Republican majority was 585. Will the Herald put up or else shut up his slanderous remarks about the people of Ohio county. They have learned better than to be Democrats.

This man who said "I had my way I would put a bomb under the Eleventh District and blow it to hell," was at the funeral of Col. John L. Sandford, and said upon that occasion: "John Sandford was to me like a brother. I loved him. I hope 'Gawd' may spare me and I shall make it my life's mission to avenge him by burying his slayer in the depth of merited public execration." The slayer of John L. Sandford was Wm. Goebel, and of G. O. Blackburn said at his funeral: "Build here over his grave a mighty towering granite shaft that shall defy the corroding touch of time. Inscribe upon it an epitaph that should be worthy of the man. He earned this at our hands. In life and death he was consecrated to the people's cause. He lived an honest life, and gave his life for your deliverance. Of him no eulogy but truth may say: Earth never pillowed upon her bosom a truer son, nor Heaven opened wide her portals to receive a manlier spirit." At this assertion of Blackburn the heavens frowned and said: "I remember what you said at the grave of John L. Sandford."

REPUBLICANS, Brown Democrats, Populists and Prohibitionists, you should remember the lies that Dave Smith told in his speech here and the assertion that he rejoiced when Louisville's vote was thrown out. Those people who voted in Louisville were far better than the man who helped to measure the ballot box and now asks you to send him to Congress. Every independent man should vote for Senator R. M. Jolly, who is now laboring unceasingly at Frankfort to have a fair election law passed. Senator Jolly is a gentleman clear from all attempts to destroy popular government. He is a meritorious gentleman, worthy the support and confidence of every citizen of the Fourth District. Senator Jolly was elected to the State Senate in a Democratic District, which should recommend him as a worthy and representative of the people. The falsehoods and misrepresentations that fell from the lips of Mr. Smith at this place should condemn him in the sight of every honest man and brand him as a mugwump and a demagogue.

ANOTHER purse of $5,000 was taken Wednesday when the jury found Jim Howard guilty of assassinating Wm. Goebel and fixed his punishment at death. Notwithstanding the fact that Howard proved an alibi, this jury constructed to end his life, did so, because they were bent on hanging somebody, and not because of convicting evidence. This whole procedure is an outrage on the citizen-ship of Kentucky. It is a farce backed up by $100,000 in the hands of a gang of political dare-devils. It is time that this outrage should end. Indignation meetings should be held immediately throughout the State and enter a protest against this persecution. It should be stopped and stopped quickly, or the lives of every Republican and true Democrat will be in danger of immediate annihilation. Taylor has not been hung, but Jim Howard sentenced, and this monstrous gang of conspirators are endeavoring to damn the Republican party as James Andrew Scott said they intended to do. Jim Howard is a poor man, but his life is as precious as any life and he should not be murdered by an infamous set of usurpers, because they want to hang something

The Platform and the Leaders.

While it is quite amusing to note the manner in which the Democratic leaders attempt to mislead the people, it fills many thinking men with disgust. When the party leaders assemble in convention they say all kinds of good things in their platform to delude the people, but in putting the machinery in gear, for the campaign, they don't talk so nice to the great common people. "It has long since been the practice of the Democratic leaders to deceive the people, that they might be able to carry off the 'spoils.' It is not putting it too strong to say that this party loses sight of the people in its struggle for supremacy. We say this with all kindness for those good men in that organization. In forming a platform at Lexington that would be, in all probability, productive of good results, that party declared: 'It has ever existed that the will of the majority shall control and that the minority must cheerfully and willingly acquiesce therein.' This is what the platform said to the public. Now let's see what some of the Democratic leaders have said confidentially. 'Our county is all right—safely Democratic, but we are not to be won with a fair count, and you know that as well as I do.'—South Trimble. Following the platform we find more deception and brazen hypocrisy. 'It has always advocated and still does, that all elections shall be fairly conducted and the result honestly ascertained.' Let's call on Trimble to verify this assertion: 'Incompetent, unreliable Republican Judges will have to be appointed. The right of the Republicans to indicate who shall represent them as Judges and shall have to be ignored etc., etc.' This is the way Trimble explained the purpose of himself and Judge Pryor, while Woodson seconded this in the following language: 'The white property-owning, respectable people of Kentucky are going to control the government of this Commonwealth now and hereafter, and they are going to legislate some respect for law and order. The moneybags and their satellites and hangers-on, who have chosen to affiliate politically with 75,000 ignorant negroes and as many more vicious and red-handed mountaineers. The struggle for supremacy is done. State, as it has in other States, that only the people who are capable of good government will be permitted to govern.'

Now we might with justice to the public take up Mr. Watterson, after he had been Goebelize or Timblezied or Blackbuzinized, and see his version of the intentions of the Democratic party as now administered. "Under the operation of the Goebel law the result is not left to chance." Mr. Watterson thus expressed his opinion of Goebelism to Belmont, and advised that he appear before Goebel and account for the deeds done in the name of the great principle upon which the American republic was founded—freedom.

Notwithstanding these expressions from acknowledged leaders of the party to confidential friends, the leaders of the modern Democracy in their platform, insult the intelligence of every true Kentuckian. Mr. Goebel's final injunction was an misleading to the public as the statements in the platform above quoted.

"Tell my friends to be true to the great common people," said Mr. Goebel when the death angel called, but when his soul was free from the awful thought of eternal death and when he had his whole being thoroughly saturated with the thought of being Governor, he declared that he would be Governor regardless of what the great common people had to say about it. These are truths recorded in history and every man who has kept abreast of the times concurs in the statement.

An Unscrupulous Editor.

In attempting to justify its own unwarranted and unprincipled course, the Hartford Herald cites us to frauds (which it says) have been practiced in Congress by Republicans. We do not know whether its citations are true or not, that does not pertain to the case in question. It does not justify the Democratic party in robbing the citizens of Kentucky of their liberties, it does not justify the Herald in attempting to defend its gang of thieves and cut throats. No true Republican will endorse the acts of Congress or a State Legislature in robbing an honest man of the office which the people gave him; and no genteel gentleman ever endorsed stealing office.

The man, who cites his political opponent to cases of fraud and theft to justify the course of his own lawless usurping power and stealing office, is no part of a gentleman. If this shoe fits the editor of the Herald or its assumed editor, or both, it is theirs to wear. A man who will endorse the acts of a Legislature in destroying a free government for nothing but office, is certainly a thing of dense ignorance or a thieving scoundrel. This is meant strictly for those who approve the political bandit that destroys the ballot box and sets at naught the sacred principles of liberty.

These citations may be true, but if the Herald is the authority for the assertion, we should, like nine tenths of the people of the county, brand it as a falsehood. It is no great surprise that the Hartford Herald's editor would cite one case of robbery to justify himself, in his feeble attempt to defend his own party's theft. The people will remember after Capt. Ellis had told this justifier of theft and fraud that he would not rob the man Taylor of his office, which he had received under adverse circumstances; that he conceded Taylor's election as well as that of his colleagues. If any one doubts it here is the article for his own perusal.

"But without multiplying words to prove the vanity of any claim, or stopping to inveigh against the fraud and intimidation that has been practiced against the Democratic candidates we might as well accept the result, as now extant, as final. Relying upon the most accurate figures at command from all sources, it appears that Gen. W. S. Taylor and the whole Republican ticket have been elected by majorities ranging at less than three thousand." There are extravagant claims on both sides, but we are giving the situation as we truly believe it stands without any intention of misleading anybody.—Herald, November 29, 1899.

Now follow citizens what do you think of the shyster who thus acknowledged his defeat, and since then encouraged the assassination of civil liberty in Kentucky? While he charges in this article that the Republicans practiced fraud and military intimidation, he knows that every word is an unmitigated lie. Blackburn offered to wager his soul against a counterfeit penny that if any stealing was done the Republicans would not do it, for the law was fraud proof, and that idol, Mr. Goebel said right in Hartford "if any stealing is done, the Republicans won't do it." The fact is that Wm. Goebel and his gang were defeated at their own game with every chance in their favor, and the minute this was discovered, the whole clan set about to devise plans by which they could steal the office under the forms of law, and when the idea was suggested the Hartford Herald, said it was the very thing to do.

For the man in the rural districts, who reads but little and only one side, there may be some excuse for his supporting those usurpers at Frankfort for he follows the name of his party on account of its former prestige. But for the editor of the Herald there is no just cause for his supporting them. It is his privilege to read and understand, if he has the ability to comprehend. He is, we are quite sure, well acquainted with the miserable course of his party and he has chosen to defend its wrongs instead of right. It is not expected that a thief, or the defender of a thief, would speak kindly of a man who continues to remind them of their diabolical and infernal deeds. This malicious slander and maligner of truth has elected to vent his spleen by pouring forth his vilian and abuse upon the Republican and its editors. Such a course damns none save its author.

No Hope for a Fair Law.

The Legislature has now been in session since the 28th of last month and it has, thus far, done nothing. The purpose of its being called into existence was to "repeal or modify" the Goebel law, which Watterson said: "Removal every element of chance from the result of the election." All this time has been consumed to no effect. The Goebel law yet stands, without any probability of anything but a worse, if it be possible. Ten days should have been abundant time for the enactment of a fair law, for the Goebellies have a handsome majority in both Houses. Any measure approaching fairness could be passed in twenty-four hours. It is simply out of the question for Democrats to charge Republicans with blockading legislation. Yet they have the affrontery to do it. But men who openly, and in the violation of all law and decency, steal and endorse stealing, have a magnanimous supply of gall and brass. Many of our Democratic friends in Hartford and throughout Kentucky, have been so humiliated by the course of their party that they have not had the courage to look an honest old "rooster" square in the face since the outrage of last November were perpetrated in his name. The outrageous sayings of Goebel, that "the Republicans might do the voting, but we (Democrats) will do the counting." "You can't out count me and you can't count me out," the highland work of Hoertz and Caruth, in removing eighty-seven precinct officers in Louisville on the night before the election and in their state placing disreputable and irresponsible Goebellies in their stead; the manner in which the contest was conducted and the ultimate overthrow of the people's will and along with it, popular government in Kentucky. All these things have aroused the people of Kentucky, as no other people were ever aroused. They have demanded the repeal of the Goebel law and the Governor, by thievery and pillage, protected by this law, has deemed it best for the Goebellies party, to have this pet measure, that removes every element of chance from the election, re-adjusted. Complying with this judgment, the Legislature was asked to so amend the law that its enemies could find it faultless.

For a time the people hoped to get a law that might save the State from revolution and they were justifiable in this hope, for party passion and party hate had partially died out and a fair law was in sight. But now every element of hope has been removed. The poor old reprobate Blackburn, who is merely stopping here until a place hotter than Hades is prepared for him, has been called in to action and here is his first effusion:

"Talk about speakers, why Beckham and McCree are going over the State making speeches and I want to say you might bring all the Democratic speakers in the United States here, from Bryan down, and it will do no good unless you gentlemen do your duty and pass a law the Eleventh District can be purged."

"If I had my way I would throw a dynamite bomb under the Eleventh District and blow it to Hades. We know that they have not got 18,000 majority there, and Vincent Boreing says they will get 2,000 this time and Dave Colson says twice as great a majority as they got last fall."

"The State Board must have judicial authority so as to purge this district. It must be composed of two Democrats and one Republican."

This same old Joe, declared just after the election that the Goebel law had cost the Democratic party 30,000 votes. Now this same mugwump, demagogue and outlaw declares if he had his way he would throw a dynamite bomb under the Eleventh District and blow it to Hades. There has never been any decent charge brought against this section of Kentucky. Its people are intensely imbued with the spirit of Republicanism and this is a grievous insult and Blackburn would blow it to Hades had he his way. Fellow citizens, what think you of the men who talk fair laws, forms of law, and good government? The State board must have judicial authority, so it can do the stealing without having to embarrass the Legislature. It was intended that the Goebel law should have a commission with judicial authority, and from the way it rosted defeated men in office, it certainly had some extraordinary power. It should be the earnest prayer of every Kentuckian, that Beckzebub Blackburn will be rejected by the United States Senate that he may never again disgrace the halls of the American Congress. In our judgment the most necessary cases of purging would be for Kentucky to purge herself of the Blackburns, the Goebels, Beckhams, Wattersons and the Campbells then we might have government by the people.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way (says doctors), and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, it has a tendency to close, and hearing is lost. When this tube is inflamed, it has a tendency to close, and hearing is lost. When this tube is inflamed, it has a tendency to close, and hearing is lost.

Philippine Letter.

MANILA, P. I. AUGUST 11, 1900. Mrs. Annie Ross, Smallhouse, Kentucky. Dear grand ma—I was reading not long since of you visiting your children and grand children, and I am very glad to know of your good health and will surely come to see you among the first upon my return home, and I will surely be at home in less than a year. Since the beginning of the Spanish American war I've lost both father and mother, yet few gray headed men of thirty-two are able to write to a grand-mother, and I feel that there is much yet to be thankful for.

My period of enlistment extends to April the 14th, 1901. I do not expect to re-enlist except in case of my country's most pressing need.

My plans for the future have not entirely ripened. I hope I may be of some use and do some good among old friends of boyhood days. I may at least, enjoy good health, much comfort and happiness and do as little harm as possible, where the pure bracing air of old Kentucky may soothe my fevered brow.

I am having a battle royal with the climate of Manila. I expect to win, for the Spanish bullet has sped harmlessly by. The "insurrectos" have thrown slugs and old nails at me in vain, and the wily bolo man has passed me not, and shall I will before a sultry breeze? Nay, verily.

I now weigh about 140 pounds and am gaining a little. Company I, 21st Infantry is doing police duty here in Manila and Manila districts and furnish a concert guard on the Luneta in the early part of the night. We go on guard every third day and walk post for eight hours out of 24. Then there are a few minor duties, such as drills, etc., which take up the most of my time. Be sure to save a few hugs and kisses and sweet pickles and such nice things for me. I am not the little "Kiss" I used to be when I looked in wonder on the great ferry boat and at the flaring mill, but I want to see my grand-ma just as bad as then.

Remember me with love to all and believe me to be as ever your loving grand-son, JOHN C. BARNARD, Company I, 21st Infantry.

The most delicate constitution can safely use RALLARD'S HORE HOUND SYRUP. It is a sure and pleasant remedy for coughs, loss of voice, and all throat and lung troubles. Price 25 and 50c. For sale by J. H. Williams.

Don't forget the speaking Monday, as its important that you come.

The Largest School in the South.

The fall session of the Cherry Brothers' Schools opened in the magnificent new college building Sept. 4, 1900, with an attendance that is at least twice as large as it was at the beginning of last year and there is no longer one doubt about the daily attendance reaching one thousand students during the present scholastic year. The new college building is situated at

COUGHS KILL

We know of nothing better than coughing to tear the lining of your throat and lungs. It is better than wet feet to cause bronchitis and pneumonia. Only keep it up and you will succeed in reducing your weight, losing your appetite, bringing on a slow fever, and making everything right for the germs of consumption. Better kill your cough before it kills you.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

kills coughs of every kind. A 25 cent bottle is just right for an ordinary cough; for the harder coughs of bronchitis you will need a 50 cent bottle; and for the coughs of consumption the one dollar size is most economical.

By coughing reduced me to a mere skeleton, tried many remedies, but they all failed. After using the Cherry Pectoral I immediately began to improve, and three bottles restored me to health. I believe I owe my life to it.

OLATON.

September 27, 1900.—In memory of Mrs. A. J. Hall.

Death has called away our loved one, in the lonely grave to lie.

Yet her soul is now resting in that home beyond the sky.

Dearest grand-ma, how you suffer'd, 'til God called you from your pain.

To that bright and holy mansion, through endless years to reign.

There I hope to meet you where time doeth all things well.

We loved her, yes we loved her, but the angels loved her more.

And they have gently called her, to ponder shining shore.

The golden gates were open—a gentle voice said come.

And with a farewell unspoken, she calmly entered home.

Oh, how sadly do we miss her, on earthly things can tell.

But in heaven we hope to meet you, where God doeth all things well.

Far beyond this world of sorrow, far beyond this world of care,

Soon we'll find our loved ones waiting, in our father's mansion fair.

Yes, she's gone, but not forgotten, by the ones left lonely here.

And ere long we hope to meet her, in that bright and glorious dawn.

are practically annihilated by the ocean cables and land telegraph systems which now belt the circumference of Old Earth in so many different directions. "Foreign parts" are no longer foreign in the old meaning of the term. Europe, Africa, Asia, are "next door" to us. What happens there to-day we know to-morrow—if we read THE CHICAGO RECORD, whose Special Cable Correspondents are located in every important city in the world outside of the United States. No other American newspaper ever attempted so extensive a service; and it is supplemented by the regular foreign news service of The Associated Press. For accurate intelligence of the stirring events which are shaking the nations—of wars and rumors of wars—of the threatening dissolution of old governments and the establishment of new—of the onward sweep of the race in all parts of the world—the one medium of the most satisfactory information is the enterprising, "up-to-date" American newspaper, THE CHICAGO RECORD.

MR. GOEBEL'S PLACE IN HISTORY.

people," but on the contrary they relegated him to the rear of both the other candidates Lincoln and Stone. He did not get the support of one-third even of the Democratic voters of the State, and his success in the convention was entirely due to his work upon the politicians who assembled in that convention.

History will record, the manner of his nomination, his disputed relations with Captain Stone, his method of acquiring control of the organization of the convention, his approving and profiting by the high handed frauds of Chairman Redwine, and the use of armed and partisan policemen to control the convention, and they are not things likely to make the historian believe in Mr. Winchester, in the salary less than that of the study of such a life intrudes to the youth of the State.

History will record that having by such means, become the Democratic nominee, there was not a single precinct in any one of the 119 counties of the State in which the election officers were not appointed and subject to instant removal by his partisan election boards.

History will record, that Mr. Goebel himself, on the eve of the election, was in Louisville planning his campaign; that on the night before the election, eighty odd Republican election officers, without any charge against them, were summarily removed and more pliant substitutes put in their places, for the manifest purpose of allowing a free hand to the Goebel officers on election day; that in some Republican precincts these Goebel election officers never have made any returns at all, thus depriving the whole body of citizens of their votes; and that in many other Republican precincts the voting was made so slow that the polls closed before any but a small fraction of the voters could vote.

OWN PARTISANS AGAINST HIM.

History will record, that despite their control of every precinct in the State and despite the fact that not a single Democrat testified that he was prevented from casting his vote by the three partisans whom Goebel selected for his State Board, were compelled to declare that he had been tested by over 2,000 votes on the face of returns made in every instance by election officers chosen by the Goebel machine.

History will record, that thereupon the two men (Pryor and Ellis) who had shown that they could not be trusted to go to any length to seat their defeated candidate, resigned; and the remaining member of the board (Paynter) instead of selecting two eminent men, known to the whole State to be fair men, filled the vacant places with one man (Fulton) who had just before, in violent terms, publicly declared that the Republican officers (Vontz) of whom the people generally had never heard.

History will record, that the Democrats generally confessed their defeat and even the Courier-Journal accepted it; but Goebel determined to carry the contest into the Legislature—which was largely Democratic on joint ballot, but close in the Senate.

THIS "GOOD FIGHT."

History will record, that it was declared and expected by well informed men, and it must have been expected by Mr. Goebel, that such a contest before a partisan Legislature would arouse suspicion, most violent opposition, and probably bloodshed. Whether in forcing this contest, "he fought a good fight," as Mr. Winchester says, depends on whether a fight is a good fight, merely because it is carried on resolutely by an able man, regardless of the motives which prompt it, or the disastrous results that follow, not merely to himself, but to other and innocent people.

History will record, that the first step in the contest program of Senator Goebel was to destroy the constitutional power of a small majority of the Senate to block his election, by adopting rule 11 which provided that the contest should be decided not by a majority of each of the two Houses of the Legislature, (in one of which his majority was doubtful) but by a majority of a joint session of both Houses.

History will declare that had Mr. Goebel been, as Mr. Winchester would have "the youth of the State" believe, "of Kentucky's greatest sons," had he been a Clay or Cincinnatus, or Wesley, or Morehead, or Simon Bolliver Buckner, he would never have set in his seat in the Senate chamber and permitted such conduct to go on under his own eyes unrebuked, and he would have gone to the attack rather than take an office tainted with such suspicion of jugglery and fraud.

most public act of his life. That Mr. Goebel was able, unflinching, courageous, is true. That he was unselfish, that he was the sublimated essence of goodness, Mr. Winchester would have the "youth of the State" believe, is absurd. History would so declare, it would waste time to pay attention to absurd assertions.

Many good and sympathetic men and women will contribute to erect a monument declaring Mr. Goebel one of Kentucky's greatest sons. Let no one deny them the privilege. The scheming politicians who have been using the dead man's corpse to enflame their constituents and draw public mind away from their attack under Mr. Goebel's election law upon the freedom of Kentuckians have sought by law to prohibit the publication of aught but praise of their political leader. We should expect nothing less from them. But when men like Mr. Winchester, at a time when a considerable part of the people are frenzied over the infamous assassination of Mr. Goebel, fan the flame by such articles as his, and present the facts of history, and counsel the salutary lessons that the study of such a life furnishes to the youth of the State in public and private virtue, it is time for the truth to be spoken. I have endeavored to do that. If in any particular I have erred in stating it, I shall ask the reader to go over the whole series of statements that I have made and ask himself are those statements which he will admit to be correct, not sufficient to show that the "roll of Kentucky's greatest sons" will be complete without the name of William Goebel."

Dropsey.

When a preparation has an advertised reputation that is world wide, it means that preparation is meritorious. It goes into a store to buy an article that has achieved universal popularity like CASCARETS Candy Cathartic for example, you feel it has the endorsement of the world. The judgment of the people is infallible because it is impersonal. The retailer who wants to sell you "something else" in place of the article you ask for, has an ax to grind. Don't it stand to reason? Let's try to sell something that is not what he represents it to be. Why? Because he expects to derive an extra profit out of your credulity. Are you any? Don't you see through his little game? The man who will try and sell you a substitute for CASCARETS is a fraud. Beware of him! He is trying to steal the honestly earned benefits of a reputation which another business man has paid for, and if his conscience will allow him to go so far, he will go farther. If he cheats his customer in one way, he will in another and it is not safe to do business with him. Beware of the CASCARETS substitute! Remember CASCARETS are never sold in bulk but in metal boxes with the long tailed "C" on every box and each tablet stamped C. C. C.

As an external liniment of most wonderful penetrative and curative power, BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT is not equalled by any other in the world. Price 25 and 50 cts. For sale by J. H. Williams.
